

2017 Annual Meeting

New Hampshire Conference, United Church of Christ

Save the Date:
Saturday, October 21, 2017

Grappone Center – 70 Constitution Avenue – Concord, NH 03301

2017 Annual Meeting

New Hampshire Conference, United Church of Christ

Save the Date:
Saturday, October 21, 2017

Grappone Center – 70 Constitution Avenue – Concord, NH 03301

2017 ANNUAL MEETING

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONFERENCE, UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

OCTOBER 21, 2017

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- UCC Clergy with Full Standing in New Hampshire (voting)
- Annual Meeting Lay Delegates (voting)
- Visitors (non-voting)*

*anyone not listed above is welcome to attend as a non-voting visitor

Do you know who your church's Delegates are?

Your church's Delegates...

- Vote and represent you and your church at the Annual Meeting.
- Report back to your congregation on the business and happenings of the Conference.
- Are the ones to speak with about your views concerning current issues facing your church, and the Conference.

If your church hasn't elected delegates yet, consider volunteering!

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND:

- Join the other churches of the Conference in uplifting worship.
- Hear the state of the Conference and consider and/or vote on the 2018 Mission Income & Spending Plan
- Learn more about the Conference's Ministries & Mission Groups.
- Experience the Keynote Address by Bishop Dwayne D. Royster as he speaks to our theme, "In Search of Sanctuary: Won't you Be My Neighbor?"

HOW TO REGISTER:

A link to the Annual Meeting registration website will be available in "The Weekly News" (e-newsletter of the New Hampshire Conference, United Church of Christ) in late August or at www.nhcucc.org.

2017 ANNUAL MEETING

NEW HAMPSHIRE CONFERENCE, UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

OCTOBER 21, 2017

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- UCC Clergy with Full Standing in New Hampshire (voting)
- Annual Meeting Lay Delegates (voting)
- Visitors (non-voting)*

*anyone not listed above is welcome to attend as a non-voting visitor

Do you know who your church's Delegates are?

Your church's Delegates...

- Vote and represent you and your church at the Annual Meeting.
- Report back to your congregation on the business and happenings of the Conference.
- Are the ones to speak with about your views concerning current issues facing your church, and the Conference.

If your church hasn't elected delegates yet, consider volunteering!

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND:

- Join the other churches of the Conference in uplifting worship.
- Hear the state of the Conference and consider and/or vote on the 2018 Mission Income & Spending Plan
- Learn more about the Conference's Ministries & Mission Groups.
- Experience the Keynote Address by Bishop Dwayne D. Royster as he speaks to our theme, "In Search of Sanctuary: Won't you Be My Neighbor?"

HOW TO REGISTER:

A link to the Annual Meeting registration website will be available in "The Weekly News" (e-newsletter of the New Hampshire Conference, United Church of Christ) in late August or at www.nhcucc.org.