Affirming Faith | Revised and Updated

Author/Editor: Thomas E. Dipko

Learn More/Order: <https://www.uccresources.com>

This thorough, multifaceted resource is designed to assist congregations in leading youth ages 12-16 in Confirmation & Faith Formation. It is based on the United Church of Christ Statement of Faith.

Affirming Faith consists of two coordinated components. The Congregation's Guide is for leaders, complete with session plans, retreat plans, biblical and theological helps, music, liturgical resources, and a glossary of terms. For youth, there is the Confirmand's Journal which presents stories, quotes, illustrations, and questions, as well as space for journaling and reflection.

My Confirmation

Author/Editor: Thomas E. Dipko

Learn More/Order: <https://www.uccresources.com>

My Confirmation has been used by United Church of Christ (UCC) congregations for confirmation instruction since the early 1950s. This newly revised edition includes updated information on the organization of the UCC denomination; the Collegium of Ministers; the work the UCC is doing in each covenanted ministry; and more.

Designed as a workbook, it provides youth with insight into: the Bible, its origins, and how to use it; Christian beliefs; understanding God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit; and the Christian church.

This book also addresses some vital questions regarding the importance of church and the meaning of confirmation, and contains a helpful resource section.

THOMAS E. DIPKO is an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ and the former executive vice president of the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries.

UCC Denominational Resources:

Making Disciples (Coordinator's Guide, Mentor Guide and Confirmand's Journal)

Updated Edition: 6/2018

Author/Editor: William Willimon

Learn More/Order: <http://www.abingdonpress.com/>

Making Disciples is a mentor-based confirmation program that pairs confirmands with adult mentors and guides them through a variety of learning experiences that will strengthen the student's understanding of the faith while connecting him or her with the community of believers in a personal way. It can be used as a stand-alone program, or in conjunction with your current curriculum as a special experiential unit.

William Willimon is one of the foremost preachers in the English-speaking world. He and his Christian education committee decided to change the way they would provide confirmation. Willimon and co-writer, the Rev. Mark Flynn, designed a confirmation program that would be more like a process and less like a reading assignment, more engaging and congruent with the nature of the Christian faith than existing programs.

Willimon used an “apprenticeship” approach to confirmation, pairing adult mentors from the congregation with confirmation students. He produced a series of learning experiences where adult mentors and confirmands are both teachers and learners at the same time.

re:form

Publisher: Spark House, a division of Augsburg Fortress

(publishing arm of Evangelical Lutheran Church in America)

Learn More/Order: <http://wearesparkhouse.org/teens/reform/core/>

From the Spark House website: “You said it was time to jettison those crusty, sleep-inducing programs of the past. And we listened. You said youth ministry should be about exploration, not indoctrination. And we agreed. re:form is a totally new approach to youth ministry that trusts youth to wrestle with the historic Christian faith and theology.

re:form features two DVDs with 40 hilarious animated short films that frame the theological questions that youth really ask, an Anti-Workbook that’s chock full of individual and group activities, and a fully reproducible Leader Guide.”

The re:form Traditions material is currently available for Methodist, Lutheran, and Reformed. See the UCC Denominational Resources section of this file for supplementary material on the United Church of Christ Faith Traditions.

Talking Faith

Author: Heather Kirk-Davidoff, Nancy Wood

Publisher: Chalice Press

Methodology: Experiential,

Learn More/Order: <http://www.chalicepress.com/>

From the Chalice Press website: “Talking Faith is not about teaching people what to believe or about going door-to-door in an evangelism campaign. It is about helping people to better understand and develop their own faith and helping them to be comfortable in sharing their faith with others.”

Becoming and Belonging: A Practical Design for Confirmation

Author: William Myers

Learn More/Order: <https://www.amazon.com/>

This long-awaited resource for church leaders is inspiring in concept and exhilarating in execution. Designed to revitalize the experience of confirmation--for youth as well as those dedicated to nurturing the faith of the church's youth--this guide is a practical and an enlivening approach to confirmation. Contributors include Gary Halstead, Timothy Nelson, Richard Wolf, and others.

Confirm not Conform

Learn More/Order: <http://www.confirmnotconform.com/cnc-youth-ucc>

The extravagant welcome of the United Church of Christ includes welcome to those of all ages, recognizing that God is still speaking through young and old alike. Confirm not Conform UCC empowers youth for ministry and helps your congregation recognize youth as full members of the Church of Christ.

In addition to more general sessions on Scripture, church history, the Nicene Creed, the Lord's Prayer, worship, world religions, and social justice, CnC UCC includes sessions on:

- The history and structure of the UCC
- The meaning of Sacraments in the UCC tradition
- The church year
- The priesthood of all believers

Faith Development and Confirmation Curriculum for Teens and Adults with Intellectual Developmental Disabilities (UMC)

This faith development and confirmation series, from the United Methodist Church, engages and prepares people of all abilities to participate in worship and church life. This series is intended for classes for teens and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. It can also be used to supplement materials in typical student classes which are written at a functional reading level.

NOOMA® DVD SERIES

Author: Rob Bell

Learn More/Order: <https://www.christianbook.com/page/dvds/featured-dvds/nooma/nooma-dvds>

From the former nooma.com website: "Jesus lived with the awareness that God is doing something, right here, right now, and anybody can be a part of it. He encouraged his listeners to search, to question, to wrestle with the implications of what he was saying and doing. He inspired, challenged, provoked, comforted, and invited people to be open to God's work in this world. Wherever he went, whatever he did, Jesus started discussions about what matters most, because for Jesus, God is always inviting us to open our eyes and join in. NOOMA is a series of short films that explore our world from a perspective of Jesus. NOOMA is an invitation to search, question, and join the discussion."

The Unofficial Handbook of the United Church of Christ

Author: Quinn G. Caldwell, Curtis Preston

Learn More/Order: <https://www.uccresources.com/products/the-unofficial-handbook-of-the-united-church-of-christ-caldwell-preston>

A lighthearted, humorous book about the United Church of Christ (UCC) denomination.

The co-authors—two young UCC ministers who are lifelong “UCCers”—have written this useful resource for all UCCers, but particularly for millennials: confirmation-aged youth and teens. Readers will learn about, appreciate, and be proud of their denomination—while not taking themselves too seriously.

Words for the Journey: Letters to Our Teenagers About Life and Faith (Revised and Updated)

Authors: Martin B. Copenhaver and Anthony B. Robinson

Learn More/Order: <https://www.uccresources.com/products/words-for-the-journey-letters-to-our-teenagers-about-life-and-faith-revised-updated-copenhaver-robinson>

First published in 2003, the book includes an original collection of letters written by Copenhaver and Robinson to their teenagers. They discuss a wide variety of topics - God, church, Bible, vocation, relationships, difficult matters, faith, doubt, prayer, sex, abortion, race, and homosexuality - and share what God and their faith means to them. This revised and updated edition includes a new introduction and afterword. The book will appeal to parents, teenagers, and those in youth ministry and is an excellent supplemental confirmation resource or meaningful confirmation and graduation gift.

To Begin at the Beginning: An Introduction to the Christian Faith (2017 Edition)

Authors: Martin B. Copenhaver

Learn More/Order: <https://www.christianbook.com/begin-the-beginning-introduction-christian-faith/martin-copenhaver/9780802874160/pd/874160>

Christian faith, says Martin Copenhaver, is not a subject to be mastered like calculus or Shakespeare; it is a story to be told and a life to be lived. No matter how much or how little you know, To Begin at the Beginning tells the story of Christian faith and invites you to take part in it.

In this book Copenhaver covers basic themes—the Bible, church, ministry, sacraments, prayer, ethics—in a clear and inviting way. His approach creates a valuable resource for pastors, an accessible guide for seekers and new Christians, and a "refresher course" for longtime Christians who want to engage anew with what they believe.

Best Practices *:

Visit Other Faith Communities. If your Confirmation programs runs over a long period of time, you might consider scheduling a visit once a month. Recommendations include:

- a Jewish Temple (for our heritage from the Jews)
- Participation in Shabbat Across America - contact a local synagogue for details (<http://njop.org/programs/shabbat/shabbat-across-america-canada/>)
- a Mosque (for the world we live in)
- an Islamic Society (contact information for the Islamic Society of New Hampshire: 73 S Willow Street D2-3, Manchester, NH 03103 or <https://www.isofnh.org/>)
- a Greek Orthodox Church
- other very different expressions of Christian Worship (to give them something to use to figure out how they best worship and if this worshipping community is where they belong)

Spiritual Gifts Assessment

Every Christian is gifted for ministry. Helping our Confirmands to discover how God has gifted them to serve will reinforce the concept that Confirmation is not a graduation (end), but rather a milestone on their life long faith journey. Encourage them to use these newly discovered gifts to serve in the local church and community. (Refer to the Supplemental Resources for tools to assist in discerning gifts)

Participation in Annual Meeting

Participation in the Annual Meeting is an excellent way to introduce Confirmands to the polity (operational and governance structure) of our church.

Mentoring

"This modeling of care for the other, illustrated by mentors in their care for confirmands, also teaches confirmands that we are not independent Christians, but part of an interdependent body of Christ." Learn more in the article by Kate Siberine entitled, "Mentoring: The Missing Key to Confirmation?" found on the buildfaith.org website.

Community Service Ideas *:

Common cathedral is the heart of Ecclesia Ministries. It is our church - and it takes place outdoors on the Boston Common at 1:00 pm every Sunday, rain or shine, sleet or snow. Roughly 100 people gather at the now defunct (but still beautiful) Brewer Fountain for worship each week. While most of our congregation is homeless, many who call our church home are also professors, business people, clergy, students, care-givers and professionals. Most weeks, members of suburban parishes from across New England join us as well. Together we sing and pray, reflect on the Gospel and break bread. This diverse and supportive spiritual community provides the basis from which many garner the strength and hope necessary to soften hearts, counter despair, and make positive choices

Plimoth Plantation is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit museum supported by admissions, contributions, grants, and generous volunteers. For more information visit their website at: <http://www.plimoth.org>

The United Church of Christ came into being in 1957 with the union of two Protestant denominations: the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches. Each of these was in turn the result of a union of two earlier denominations.

The Congregational Churches organized when the Pilgrims of Plymouth Plantation (1620) and the Puritans of the Massachusetts Bay Colony (1629) united in 1648. The Christian Churches sprang up in the late 1700s and early 1800s. The Reformed Church in the United States traces its beginnings to congregations of German settlers in Pennsylvania founded from 1725 on. The Evangelical Synod of North America began in an association of German Evangelical pastors in Missouri in 1841.
