A Christian Educator, Youth Leader, Clergy, Lay person

Worship, Music, Workshops, Fellowship, Friends and FUN!

MAY 7-9, 2013

"Your vibrant beauty has gotten inside us—you’ve been so good to us! We’re walking on air!" Ps. 89:17 The Message

Keynote Speaker - John Roberto

John Roberto is president of Lifelong Faith Associates (www.lifelongfaith.com), editor of the journal Lifelong Faith, and coordinator for the Faith Formation 2020 Initiative (www.faithformation2020.net). John also works on the Vibrant Faith Ministries team as project coordinator of the Faith Formation Learning Exchange (www.faithformationlearningexchange.net). John works as a consultant to churches and national organizations, teaches courses and conducts workshops in faith formation, and has authored books and program manuals in youth ministry, family ministry, and intergenerational faith formation. John created the theory and practice of Generations of Faith—an intergenerational, lifelong approach to faith formation; and administered the five-year Lilly Endowment funded project to develop lifelong faith formation in Catholic parishes across the U.S.

His latest publications include Faith Formation 2020: Designing the Future of Faith, The Spirit and Culture of Youth Ministry (co-authored), Living Well: Christian Practices for Everyday Life, Becoming a Church of Lifelong Learners, and four volumes of intergenerational learning programs in the People of Faith series.

Music-Worship Leader: REV. ADELE CRAWFORD

Adele comes to ministry after a 15 year career as a professional singer. Ordained in the Presbyterian Church (USA), she is a Yale Divinity School graduate who also graduated magna cum laude with a master’s degree in music from the University of Michigan. She has traveled the world, performing at churches, Carnegie Hall, and the Metropolitan Opera. She currently serves as Pastor of Valley Presbyterian Church, Brookfield CT, and has previously served as an interim Christian Education director, an acting associate minister and as Interim Dean of Chapel at Yale Divinity School.

Special UCC National Guest- REV. DR. KRISTINA LIZARDY-HAJBI
National Faith Formation Researcher

Wednesday Workshops

A Basic workshop is introductory/fundamental information and assumes no prior experience, knowledge or training. An Intermediate Workshop assumes participants are familiar with the topic and want to focus on skills required or to actively participate in discussions and sharing. For Advanced workshops participants bring a lot of experience, the leader is facilitating in-depth discussions and/or providing feedback to help participants really master skills.

W-1 Color Youth Ministry through the Arts, Elsa Marshall
Description: The arts offer youth ministry rich possibilities for connection to the spiritual. Each of us, created in the divine image, experience pleasure in imagery, through the senses, joy in color and sound, and gratification in drama and poetry. The spirit of God may be found wherever the full dimensions of life are being explored. The arts can provide a path to an awareness of the Holy. Arts cultivate a sense of spontaneity and playfulness that opens up imaginations to new possibilities, encourages curiosity and wonder, awakens and enlivens and are vitalizing. The arts can contribute in significant ways to the creation of meaning in our lives. This will be a hands on workshop offering many different experiences in the arts.
Basic workshop for those with an interest in Youth Ministry.
Presenter Bio: Elsa Marshall is a Commissioned Minister, National Educational Consultant, UCC, MACUCC Educational Consultant, and Partner in Education.

Description: Explore multiple ways to bring the biblical stories to life whenever your congregation gathers. This instructive workshop will include examples, audience participation, music, some words about oral tradition, interpretation, and the transmission of the biblical traditions. Engage your inner storyteller!
Basic workshop for anyone, limited to 30 participants. This workshop will be repeated on Thursday morning.
Presenter Bio: Bert Marshall is a Nebraska native, a graduate of Yale Divinity School, a former rock 'n roll musician, church pastor, dairy farm worker, union organizer, and driver of 18-wheelers for a New England natural foods distributor. He performs the Gospel of Mark from memory all over the country (www.gospelofmarkalive.com) as a live storyteller. He is a singer/songwriter/musician whose latest CD, "Prairie Child", is available at most music venues. He lives in western MA.

W-3 Beyond Banners, Diane Ciba
Description: This workshop will explore a variety of ways to create liturgical art with groups in ways that build community. The focus is on finding group projects and a spirit-filled process that will allow participants to deepen their faith and connect with one another. Join us and discover the creativity and spirit that can bring visual vitality to every sacred space. Come and make a joy-filled work of art!
Basic workshop for anyone with an interest in Faith Formation. Diane is also offering another opportunity to work with Liturgical Art on Wednesday afternoon.
Presenter Bio: Diane Ciba is a craftsperson with experience in a variety of media. Diane's focus in recent years has been on group-building art. She is a computer professional with a teaching background, a musician and handywoman who also loves to work with people and all sorts of materials. Faith formation, Christian Education and the arts are her foundations, and she uses them to celebrate the creativity that is in everyone.

W-4 Contemplative Prayer, Kelly Lueticemeyer
Description: A contemplative prayer practice allows one to calm the mind and body and rest in the quiet presence of God. This workshop is experiential. You will have an opportunity to pay attention your breath, listen to your mind and body, and allow the peace of God to be with you and to share your experience with others.
Basic workshop for anyone with an interest in Contemplative Prayer.
Presenter Bio: Kelly Lueticemeyer has led a contemplative prayer small-group for adults for many years in Upton at the United Parish. He was brought up in the Catholic tradition and was introduced to Centering Prayer by Father Keating in Colorado. He has been influenced by a variety of contemplative practices from different religions.
W-5 Creativity as a Spiritual Path – Using photography, writing and painting as a means to grow closer to God.
Patricia Ann Chaffee
Description: Creativity as a Spiritual Path is an invitation to an alternative way to deepen our spirituality. Different from Bible study and academic pursuits to theology, creativity is a tool to go deep within to tap into the Source who is the ultimate artist. Through creating opportunities that embrace photography, writing, or painting, we can cultivate a deeper relationship with God and a greater understanding of our own divinity. We all come to know God in our own way and offering creative programming in your congregations can reach many people who may not be reached in traditional ways.
In this workshop we will explore three different mediums: painting, photography, and writing and the ways they can be used to create program offering that appeal to all ages. These programs have been affective in opening participants to infinite possibilities, encouraging them to honor their (often undiscovered) inner artist and most importantly, they feel more connected to God.
Basic workshop for anyone interested in nurturing Faith in non-traditional and creative ways. This workshop is limited to 15 participants.
Presenter Bio: Patricia Ann Chaffee is a professional writer, retreat leader and the Community Minister at Niantic Community Church. Among a plethora of other things, she is responsible for creating adult programs for the church community and beyond. Her programs emphasize the undeniable relationship between creativity and spirituality and create opportunities for people to connect with God by getting in touch with their innate artist within.

W-6 CE 101, Rev. Annette Mott
Description: This workshop is intended for those beginning work as a CE Director, Superintendent, or CE Chair. The workshop will review the essential components, structures, and processes that foster strong educational ministry, and will address the particular issues that participants present.
Basic workshop for beginning leaders in Christian Education Ministry: for example CE Directors, Superintendents, and CE Chairs
Presenter Bio: Annette Mott served as a Christian Educator for local UCC churches and the Maine Conference United Church of Christ for over thirty years before entering pastoral ministry four years ago. She also served as a New England Regional Educational Consultant for the United Church of Christ.

W-7 Rainbow Ribbons and Sacred Dance with Children in Worship, Kristin Putney
Description: Experience many ways to involve children in worship through sacred dance for the many Holidays and Seasons of the Church. (No previous dance experience required!) Ideas will include creative approaches to involve ALL ages and also ways to invite boys to participate. Music, props, robes, and sacred steps will be discussed. During this workshop time, simple props will be made (wrist ribbons, ribbon sticks and floral ribbon hoops) to engage the children and emphasize a special worship. Much of the sacred dance elements can also be used with older youth and adults and can be modified for any church size and space.
Basic workshop for worship leaders, church school leaders.
Presenter Bio: Kristin Putney has been the Director of Christian Education at the Seekonk Congregational Church since 2000 but has been involved with church school for over 26 years. Combined with her degree in Fine Arts and job as a Mural & Decorative Painter, Kristin uses her creativity in many ways to engage the children and families in the church setting. She was recently hired with the RI Conference as a Resource Consultant for Christian Education and Youth Ministry. In this position, she is working closely with the local churches to bring them together to utilize and share their individual strengths and resources involving more families and children into their congregation and programs. Her love of children and passion to be creative with materials has blossomed a great energy in sacred dance with children in church worship.

Wednesday Afternoon Flextime

WA-1 Getting Connected in a Wired World, Elsa Marshall
Description: This will be an open discussion around opportunities and programs offered through state conferences, CE Communities of Practice, AUCE etc.
This will be a Basic workshop for Christian Educators
Presenter Bio: Elsa Marshall is a Commissioned Minister, National Educational Consultant, UCC, MACUCC Educational Consultant, and Partner in Education.

WA-2 Liturgical Art – Group Project, Diane Cliba
Are there vibrant colors lurking in your scrap fabric box? Look for two 5 x 5” squares of the craziest/coolest/amazing fabric and bring it along to NEAUCE to contribute to a group project. No fabric, no worry, some of us have funky fabric to spare! Working together we will be creating an altar cloth and/or fabric tree with the donated fabrics.
Basic workshop for anyone with an Interest in Faith Formation.
Presenter Bio: Diane Cliba is a craftperson with experience in a variety of media. Diane’s focus in recent years has been on group-building art. She is a computer professional with a teaching background, a musician and handycraft person who also loves to work with people and all sorts of materials. Faith formation, Christian Education and the arts are her foundations, and she uses them to celebrate the creativity that is in everyone.

WA-3 National UCC Faith Formation Future Directions: Q&A Session, Rev. Dr. Kristina Lizardy-Hajbi
Description: This will be an open question & answer session regarding the direction the national UCC’s ministry of Christian faith formation and education are taking and any details about implementation plans to date and over the next several months.
Basic workshop for anyone with an Interest in Faith Formation.
Presenter Bio: Rev. Dr. Kristina Lizardy-Hajbi serves as Minister for Christian Faith Formation Research in the national setting of the United Church of Christ. Kristina holds a Ph.D. in Educational Leadership, Research, and Policy from the University of Colorado and an M. Div. from Iliff School of Theology. She possesses experience in a variety of ministry areas, including college administration, multicultural /intercultural education, local church ministry, Christian education/faith formation, hospital chaplaincy, and youth ministry. Kristina also currently serves as adjunct faculty at Iliff School of Theology.

WA-4 “What's Black and White and Re(a)d All Over ... with Caring?”, Maren C. Tiranbassi
Description: There are many styles of mutual reflection on writing, usually called workshop. Many people seek collegial assistance, but group responses can range from hazing to undiscriminating (not very helpful) affirmation. Seven participants will each bring eight copies of a one page piece of writing (fiction, poetry, essay, devotion) and the group will reflect intentionally on each person's written work, based on shared guidelines for appropriate feedback. A handout and brief discussion will suggest how to start and maintain a healthy writer’s group in a congregational setting.
Intermediate workshop for anyone with an interest in writing, limited to 7 participants.
Presenter Bio: Maren C. Tiranbassi is the author of eighteen books, most recently Gifts in Open Hands – More Resources for the Global Community and the newly updated title Touch Holiness Resources for Worship. Forthcoming is From Psalm to Twitter – Prayers for a Digital Age. Maren is the pastor of Union United Church of Christ in Madbury NH, a former Poet Laureate of Portsmouth NH, and travels throughout the country leading writing workshops on creative worship, memoir and poetry. She loves hiking, handcrafts, beagies and reading science fiction and fantasy. Tiranbassi analyzes the concepts and practices, so they can be applied in their local churches.

WA-5 Vibrant Faith Application Workshop, John Roberto (keynote speaker)
Description: During the conference John will be presenting 1) the contour of possibilities and principles; 2) Best Practices 3) How to apply the former including the Vibrant Faith at Home program. He will also address the concepts of Adaptive Leader/Architect/Curator. The main focus of this workshop is to help people personalize the concepts and practices, so they can be applied in their local churches.
Basic workshop for anyone with an interest in Faith Formation.
Thursday Morning Workshops

Description: Explore multiple ways to bring the biblical stories to life whenever your congregation gathers. This instructive workshop will include examples, audience participation, music, some words about oral tradition, interpretation, and the transmission of the biblical traditions. Engage your inner storyteller!
Basic workshop for anyone, limited to 30 participants.
Presenter Bio: Bert Marshall is a Nebraska native, a graduate of Yale Divinity School, a former rock ‘n roll musician, church pastor, dairy farm worker, union organizer, and driver of 18-wheelers for a New England natural foods distributor. He performs the Gospel of Mark from memory all over the country (www.gospelofmarkalive.com) as a live storytelling. He is a singer/songwriter/musician whose latest CD, “Prairie Child”, is available at most music venues. He lives in western MA.

TH-2 Infusing Best Practices of Faith Formation Into Your Congregation, Rev. Dr. Kristina Lizary-Hajbi
Description: This workshop will discuss several of the best practices outline in the report “Foundations, Findings, and Futures: Christian Faith Formation and Education in the United Church of Christ” that was completed last fall. Participants will have an opportunity to hear about some of the ways these best practices are being lived out in congregational settings and also brainstorm ideas about infusing some of these practices into their own contexts.
Intermediate workshop for anyone with an interest in Faith Formation.
Presenter Bio: Rev. Dr. Kristina Lizary-Hajbi serves as Minister for Christian Faith Formation Research in the national setting of the United Church of Christ. Kristina holds a Ph.D. in Educational Leadership, Research, and Policy from the University of Colorado and an M. Div. from Iliff School of Theology. She possesses experience in a variety of ministry areas, including college administration, multicultural/intercultural education, local church ministry, Christian education/faith formation, hospital chaplaincy, and youth ministry. Kristina also currently serves as adjunct faculty at Iliff School of Theology.

TH-3 Writing (Poetry) so a Runner Can Read It, Maren C. Tirabassi
Description: Poetry, fun and reflective for all ages, is a word palette to paint faith. This workshop suggests simple and effective methods to use poetry reading and poetry writing with different ages in faith practice and Christian education settings. Prompts and techniques for pre-school, young elementary, older elementary, middle school, high school and adults will be shared. The workshop will engage some practices and others will be available on handouts. Participants will become comfortable saying, “I write poetry,” and “I can help you write a poem.”
Basic workshop for anyone, limited to 20 participants.
Presenter Bio: Maren C. Tirabassi is the author of eighteen books, most recently Gifts in Open Hands — More Resources for the Global Community and the newly updated title Touch Holiness Resources for Worship. Forthcoming is From Psalm to Twitter — Prayers for a Digital Age. Maren is the pastor of Union United Church of Christ in Madbury NH, a former Poet Laureate of Portsmouth NH, and travels throughout the country leading writing workshops on creative worship, memoir and poetry. She loves hiking, handcrafts, beagles and reading science fiction and fantasy.

TH-4 'Sacred, Music': Toward a New Understanding of Both, Sam and Paula Guarnaccia

Description: The workshop's first half will deeply explore how music can connect the heart and mind, engaging our spiritual beings, facilitating an experience of joy, peace, and 'the sacred'. How do beauty and music unlock the connection between mind and heart, opening us to our deepest self, intelligence, emotions, awareness, honesty, wholeness, and our capacity for 'sacred' experience? How do they empower us toward transformational action? The second half will introduce the practice of BePeace, perhaps the simplest way to use appreciation, especially through music, to establish a heart/mind connection facilitating the capacity to feel, speak, and teach peace.

This is a Basic Workshop for anyone interested in exploring new territories of Faith, Understanding, and empowerment for deep engagement of 'Faith Communities' in our critical time.

Presenter Bio: Sam Guarnaccia studied classical guitar in Spain; performed in Europe and the US; taught and instituted programs at the University of Denver, Middlebury, and UVM, as Spanish scholar, teacher, and performer. His cycle of nine Peace songs has been incorporated into a Peace education curriculum being launched in the US in 2012. His work, A Celtic Mass for Peace, Songs for the Earth, has been performed throughout the United States and Scotland. His new project, the Incendens Universe Oratorio, a choral and chamber orchestra composition conceived in response to the New Universe Story, will premiere on September 15, 2013: see www.samguarnaccia.com/incendensuniverseoratorio/about.php

TH-5 Panoply of Puppetry, Megan Weymouth

Description: Puppets provide us with one of the most effective teaching tools, serving as storyteller, role player, conversation starter, and even friend. When a child creates his/her own puppet, it becomes that much more meaningful. Come to this workshop where you will see a variety of puppets -- "doable" at any age level -- and then create your own puppet that will tell its own story.

Basic workshop for anyone with an interest in puppetry, limited to 25 participants.

Presenter Bio: Megan Weymouth has just celebrated her 25th year as Coordinator for Children and Youth Ministries at The United Congregational Church in Middletown, RI. She is a former coordinator/leader for UCC/DOC International Pilgrimages with Youth (China 2003, 2005), a Partners in Education representative for Rhode Island, freelance artist, and workshop leader/presenter for curricula, teaching methods, and PUPPETRY!

TH-6 Digital Discipleship, Kimberly Knight

Description: Digital Discipleship will help church leaders learn the basics of using social media as part of their overall approach to ministry, focusing on philosophy, strategies, tools, and generative questions at the intersection of social media and church.

Basic to Intermediate workshop for professional and lay clergy, church administrators, ministry leaders, seminary students, and even non-profit leaders.

Presenter Bio: Kimberly Knight is a self-avowed church nerd with nearly 20 years experience in a wide range of technology settings and an M.Div from Candler School of Theology. She has a long history of back-pew sitting, Wednesday night supper eating and generally trying God's patience since 1969. Currently serving as the Director of Digital Strategy at Agnes Scott College in Atlanta, GA, she also leads "social media for ministry" intensives around the country, helping faith leaders explore authentic ways to enrich, engage and expand progressive communities in the 21st century. She is the former pastor of Koinonia Church, an online church in Second Life and is now the proud proprietor of The Holy Heretic, a thinking person's tavern also found in Second Life. Kimberly lives with her partner and children in the Kirkwood neighborhood of Atlanta where they are active members of Kirkwood UCC.
