

The Association of United Church Educators (AUCE)

A community of people who affirm that Christian formation is central to the life and work of the church. AUCE provides a network for Christian faith formation throughout the United Church of Christ and advocates for equipping, educating, compensating, calling, and recognizing those called to educational and formational ministries.

The Association of United Church Educators
The Voice of Christian Formation
for the 21st Century

National Setting: AUCE

A membership organization, of and for lay and ordained, paid and volunteer educators and youth workers, which has been providing advocacy and support for church education and educators in the United Church of Christ since 1971.

Join AUCE! Visit www.auce-ucc.org to find out more about the organization and membership benefits.

Regional Setting: New England (NEAUCE)

The purpose of the New England Association of United Church Educators is to plan and host its annual Conference on Faith Formation. The past two years this event has been held at the Pilgrim Pines Conference Center in Swanzey, NH. High quality keynote speakers, worship leaders, and workshops are offered during this three-day event which includes time for networking, renewal, and expanding one's horizons in Christian education and faith formation.

Local Setting: New Hampshire AUCE (NHAUCE)

The New Hampshire Association of United Church Educators (NHAUCE) brings together all who are passionate about the ministry of Christian education and faith formation to provide advocacy and support.

All are welcome to attend the meetings, generally held at the NH Conference Center, 140 Sheep Davis Road, Pembroke, NH. You can also stay connected with your peers in local NH churches by joining our Facebook group and sharing ideas/resources and asking questions in real time.
